

ESNO CONGRESS 2019

DRAFT Program

21-02-2019 - Brussels

Venue:

Title :

Integration of Primary and Secondary care: role of the nurse specialist and impact in European higher quality of care.

08 :00 – 09:00 Registration

09:00 – 09:30

Opening remarks

- President ESNO
- DG Sante – what is the vision across the EU?

Subtheme 1:

Setting the scene: Why the shift from a hospital to home care setting?

Moderator A (tbc)

09 :30 – 10 :30

Introduction

- The drivers behind the move from the hospital setting to the community
- How might this impact the role of the specialist nurse and what challenges might this bring both from an individual training perspective but also the change in responsibility and infrastructures?
- Leading expert give a 15 min presentation on : " why moving is necessary, eg to ensure sustainability of advanced and complex health care and to provide some evidence « .
- speakers are invited: what trends they are seeing in their specialist field ?

10:30 11:00

Break / Networking

11:00 – 12:00

Experiences of Care Transition trends: e.g. Oncology – Urology – Anesthesia – Mental Health

Each 15 minutes including 5 min Q&A

15 min

Nurses 1 – Example of the impact of IT / Internet and the interface between primary and secondary care

15 min

Nurses 2 – Example of how Pain management is being adopted in primary care

15 min

Nurses 3 – Example how the specialist nurses role is expanding to accommodate this transition– e.g. greater prescribing responsibilities

15 min

Nurses 4 – Example of a specialist nurse practice in community care on total well-being of the patients' needs and liaison with family and interdisciplinary health care teams.

12 :00 – 12 :30

Debate

12 :30 – 13 :30

Lunch and Network

ESNO CONGRESS 2019

DRAFT Program

21-02-2019 - Brussels

Afternoon

What might the Specialist's Nurse role look like in 5 years and what will be required to achieve this?

Moderator: B Moderator

13:30 – 15:00

Subtheme 2:

Future Challenges

Introduction on 'Invest in the Healthcare Workforce related to the Specialist Nurse, Nursing at the advanced level'.

Speakers are invited from leading global and European health and nursing organisations

13:30 – 13:40

Introduction

13:40 – 13:55

Future vision and activities: Education – Accreditation - Recognition

13:55– 14:10

Reorganization of nurse in community care: Position and Autonomy

14:10– 14:25

Recognition of the specialist nurse: Title Specialist Nurses – and political challenges

14:25 – 15:00

Panel Debate include aspects of input public

European perspective, support for and requirements on a political level:

Panel discussion with representative of physician, nurses, manager and patient: Facilities and difficulties of ensuring treatment at home building a bridge between hospital and home

Participants by leading European and global organisations:

End recaptures by moderator

15:00 – 15:30

Break out groups

Break in to Groups to discuss certain topics - What are the key issues moving forward and what needs to be done

15:30 - 16:15

Feedback from groups 5 minutes each

Debate Moderators A and B (tbc)

Next steps (e.g. Launch Campaign recognition of specialist nurse / Declaration / White Paper, European Petition)

16:15 – 16.30

Conclusion and Closing remarks

Officer DG Sante

President ESNO